From the Antwerp Courant, dated Novemb. 8.

Palermo, Oct. 2.

OUR Viceroy the Marquis de los Balbaces, continues to take all poſſible Precautions for the ſecuriry and quiet of this Iſland of Sicily. He has already brought 12 Regiments of Foot into a Condition for Service; but Horſes are wanting for filling up the Cavalry. All the Inhabitants, as well of the Towns as of the open Country, are commanded to provide themſelves with Arms, and to be ready to March as the Regency ſhall think good. In the mean while 'tis whiſper'd, that ſince the Imperialiſts became Maſters of the Kingdom of Naples, the Party of the Houſe of Auſtria gains Ground daily among the Sicilians; which gives no little Diſquiet to our Miniſtry. Yeſterday Morning 3 of our Galleys went from hence with Proviſions for Meſſina. The Council is aſſembled here almoſt daily, to find out ways to raiſe Money, as well for putting our Land-Forces on a good Foot, as for Fortifying ſeveral Maritime Places. On Thurſday laſt in the Morning, our Viceroy attended by all the Councils and Tribunals, was preſent at the ſinging of Te Deun in our Cathedral, on Occaſion of the Birth of the Prince of Aſturias.

Naples, Oct. 11. Men are kept hard at Work in repairing the Fortifications of Gaeta, that the Place may be put into a ſufficient State of Defence with all Expedition. 2000 Men are Garriſon'd in it. The Imperial Troops deſign'd from this Kingdom for Catalonia, are order'd to be ready by the 24th of this Month, and are to march through the Territories of the Pope, Tuſcany, and Modena to Genoa.

From Chieti in the Abruzzo, Sept. 22. 'The Particulars of the Blockade and Reduction of Peſcara, (which have not yet been publiſh'd,) are as follow. 'Collonel Count Wallis, who commanded the 'Blockade, committed to Captain Huillier the 'Care of the moſt advanc'd Poſt, with 220 Horſe 'of the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Caraffa, 2 other 'Captains, 4 Lieutenants, 4 Cornets, 6 Sergeants, 'and 12 Corporals, together with 300 Arm'd Peaſants of the Marquis della Valle; and for ſtraitning the Place the more cloſely, a ſmall Fort was 'order'd to be rais'd a little above the Place where 'the River Peſcara falls into the Sea: Which Fort 'was finiſhed in two Days and a Night, notwithſtanding it was but within Muſquet-ſhot of a Baſtion of the Place. By this Means all Communication with the Place as well by Sea as by Land, 'being cut off, the Garriſon offer'd to Capitulate 'the 12th Inſtant: Whereupon the 13th at Day-break 'C. Wallis ſent in the ſaid Capt. Huiller and another 'Captain, as Hoſtages; and they ſtaid in it three 'Days and two Nights, till an Account was taken 'of the Artillery, Ammunition and other Stores of 'War. The 16th the Enemy's Garriſon march'd 'out with Arms and Baggage; and all the Horſe 'and Dragoons, according to Agreement, deliver'd 'up their Horſes, which to the Number of 324 'were ſent away to Naples, to be employ'd towards 'mounting a new rais'd Regiment there. In the 'Evening of the 16th the foreſaid Captain was 'order'd to go with the Duke of Atri, who commanded the Enemy's Garriſon in Peſcara, and 'who had obtain'd Permiſſion to go by Sea to his 'Lady at Atri, and to ſtay there a Month: He gave 'the Captain a Watch, and Money to the 4 Soldiers 'that carry'd him in a Shalop. The Imperialiſts 'having taken Poſſeſſion of the Place, the Soldiers 'that had been drawn out of the Regiments of 'Neubourg, Fate, and Vaubonne, were order'd 'back to their reſpective Regiments; and thoſe of 'the 2 firſt of thoſe Regiments, were commanded 'to take with them the Enemy's Garriſon, and conduct them to Pozzuolo; whence they are to be 'tranſported to Sicily, or to Marſelles, at their own 'Expence: But if they continue to deſert as they 'have done hitherto, that Charge of Tranſportation 'will be ſpar'd. In the ſaid Town of Peſcara the 'Imperialiſts found 6 Cannon of 60 pound Ball, 6 'of 40, and 6 of 20, the reſt being 12 and 6 pounders and leſs, to the Number in all of 40, beſides 12 'ſmall Iron Guns; and one Mortar: Of Powder 'and Cannon-Bullets there were ſufficient Stores for 'a long Service; but the Proviſions were almoſt 'wholly conſum'd.

From the Paris Gazette.

Madrid, Oct. 18. The 6th of this Month the King and Queen went in State to render Thanks to God, in the Church of our Lady of Atocha, for the Birth of the Prince of Aſturias. The Streets through which their Majeſties paſs'd, were adorn'd with Tapiſtry and Pictures; and the Goldſmith's Quarter was adorn'd with a great Quantity of Plate. At certain Diſtances Stages were erected, on which were perform'd Moriſco Dances and other Repreſentations. The King and Queen came out of the Palace about 3 in the Afternoon: The March was begun by a Brigade of the Guards, then follow'd the Halbardiers, and after them the Corregidor and all the Officers of the City: Then came the Coach in which were the great Officers of the Houſehold to the King and Queen, who were together in a magnificent Coach, follow'd by another Brigade of the Horſe-Guards. The Princeſs Urſini came next in another Coach, follow'd by many more in which were the Ladies and Officers. Their Majeſties being arriv'd at the Church, Don Carlos de Borja Archbiſhop of Trebiſond, in Pontifical Veſtments, began the Te Deum, which was continued by the Muſick of the Royal Chappel. In their Return, the Streets were illuminated with Flambeaux of white Wax; and their Majeſties in their going and coming were follow'd by an infinite number of People, who expreſs'd their Joy by continual Acclamations. Our Advices from Valencia contain the following News: The new Governour of Oran ſail'd for Oran ſome Days ago, with 2 Ships of Malta; and was ſoon after follow'd by 3 other Ships laden with Proviſions and Ammunition of all Sorts. The 2 Ships of Malta found the Place beſieg'd by Sea, by 7 Algerine Ships, through which they paſs'd and enter'd the Port. The other 3 Ships arriv'd the next Day, and got into the Port in the ſame Manner: Afterwards they came out with the firſt 2 to fight the Algerines; but they were fled: At the ſame Time the Caſtle of St. Philip, of which the Moors had poſſeſs'd themſelves, was retaken.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 1.

Perpignan, Oct. 14. On Saturday laſt 6 Waggon-Loads of Powder took Fire juſt as they were entring the Gate of Canat; The Waggons and Horſes were blown up, as alſo part of the Fortifications, 20 Houſes, the Bridge, and 20 Perſons. This Accident is attributed to the Negligence of ſome Officers of the Artillery. 'Twas well the Enemy had no Troops at Hand at the Time this happen'd; for it would have been eaſie for them to make their Advantage of it, ſeeing we have no Garriſon to defend the Place. Two other Waggons loaded with Powder, which came from the Sea-ſide with thoſe 6, ſtopping a little behind, eſcap'd blowing up.

TO BE SOLD

By Mr. Collins an Ironmonger at the Queen's-Arms by the Cross-Keys-Tavern near St. Martins-Lane in the Strand, SPANISH-SNUFF true and neat, in Tin-Pots, at 4 s. per Pound, with an Advantage to those who shall buy a Parcel to sell again.

The True Golden-Snuff against most Diseases affecting the Brain, Eyes, or Ears, experienc'd for many Years, being in great Use in London and Country, and so generally approv'd that there is no need to enlarge further on its Vertues and Qualities; now to be had at John's Coffee-house in Swithings Alley near the Royal Exchange, at Mr. Orbon's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet Toyshop, and by the Author at the Green Balleony in Durham-yard in the Strand London, at 1 s. a Paper, Seal'd up with directions, (with good Allowance to all Persons that shall be willing to dispose of any,) applying themselves to the Author aforesaid,) and to distinguish it from all Counterfeits each Paper hath an Elephant Stamp'd upon it, with a Latin Inscription round it. N. B. At John's Coffee-House aforesaid are likewise to be had the true Original Strops for setting Razors, Penknives, &c. at 1 s. each with Directions.

The Grand Cephalick or Head-Snuff, approved by the most eminent Physicians in London, to be the only sort capable of curing all the Distempers of the Head and Brain, and often prescribed by them as such in the most stubborn and dangerous Cases, as Apoplexies, Epilepsies, Lethargies, Vertigoes, Megrim, Pains in the Head, Vapours, Impostumes, loss of Memory, Deafness, Sore Eyes, &c. two Papers at most times making a perfect Cure, 'tis a peculiar Composition different from all other Snuffs, and different in its Operation and Effects, twice or thrice using it, doing infinitely more real good, than 50 times using any other sort, as will manifestly appear to all that shall try it, and may possibly retrieve Life in Apoplexies and other violent Distempers of the Head, when other sorts shall be only the Introducers of Ruin and Death, this being to be used Medicinally, as there is occasion, not immoderately and for fashion sake, as the Snuff-takers do their Spanish and other pernicious Snuffs in vogue; the dangerous Consequences of which Practice being at large observed in the printed Directions. 'Tis to be had only (by the Author's appointment) at Mr. Varenne's a Bookseller at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand. Price 1 s. 6 d. per Paper.

The Incomparable India Dentiffick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Sign of the Bluecoat-Boy over-against the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-House near Chairing-Cross, price 6 d. each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruis'd with a Hammer, becomes a soft and pleasant Brush to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears so to the last. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteness of Ivory in a few times using; it preserves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uses it 2 or 3 times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a strong Breath, nor is this Root in its use any wise offensive to smell or taste.

Dr. Drew's approv'd Pectoral Tincture, that overcomes the most grounded Coughs tho' of several Years standing in a Minute, and perfectly Cures them in a few Days, as a great many of the Nobility and Gentry, and several Hundreds of others in this City and Suburbs for 20 Years last past have found by Experience. Sold only by the abovesaid Dr. Drew's Widdow living at the Blue-Ball in Gun-yard Hounsditch near Algate. Price 2 s. the Bottle with Directions at large.
